I believe that the current proposed final judgement in the Microsoft Anti-trust case, as it stands, is a bad idea. The current proposal allows Microsoft to continue in its anti-competitive practices.. Microsoft has a history of anti-competitive practices as shown in the 1996 Caldera V. Microsoft case where a judge found that "Caldera has presented sufficient evidence that the incompatibilities alleged were part of an anticompetitive scheme by Microsoft." (UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF UTAH - CENTRAL DIVISION Case No. 2:96-CV-645 B)

If the current proposal passes, the people of this nation will have been done a dis-service by their legal system.

Thank you,

Matthew Messenger
